

BIG DEMOCRATIC GAIN IN THE LEGISLATURE

Divided Republican Vote Puts Opponents in Control of Both Houses.

3 MOOSE ASSEMBLYMEN

Democrats Will Have 34 Senators and 106 Assemblymen at the Next Session.

The Democrats will control the State Senate and Assembly by big majorities. In fact such successful insurgency as dominated the United States Senatorship situation last year will not be so easy, in the opinion of the Democratic State organization leaders.

The Republicans failed to elect a Senator or Assemblyman in New York county. The Progressives elected three Assemblymen. In Kings also the Democrats made a clean sweep, electing all their Assemblymen and Senators.

The Democrats elected two-thirds of the 51 Senators and over two-thirds of the 150 Assemblymen. The Progressives did not elect a single Senator, but two Progressive Assemblymen in Manhattan won.

In what has been termed the Dix tidal wave of 1910 the Democrats elected 30 Senators to the Republicans 21, and their terms expire at the end of this year, while the Assembly of 1911, which also was elected when Dix won as Governor, stood Democrats, 87; Republicans, 63.

Last fall when the Assembly of 1912 was elected the Republicans recaptured the lower branch of the Legislature by a vote of 99 to 61.

Robert F. Wagner of Manhattan will be the president pro tem after the next State Senate and the Democratic leader of the upper branch of the State Legislature, which will be presided over by Lieutenant-Governor-elect Martin H. Glynn of Albany. The Republican floor leader probably will be Elton R. Brown of Watertown.

The next Speaker of the State Assembly will be Alfred E. Smith of the Second district of Manhattan, and the man who seems most likely to be Democratic floor leader is Assemblyman Aaron J. Levy of the Fourth New York county district. He started in politics as a Citizens Union district leader and since then has served four years as a Tammany Assemblyman. The Republican floor leader of the Assembly will probably be Harold J. Hinman of Albany, although John Leo Sullivan of Chautauqua, a progressive Republican, may be a candidate.

The State Senate elected yesterday serves until December 31, 1914, and the successor to United States Senator Elihu Root will be elected in January, 1915, by the Senate and Assembly elected in the fall of 1914.

The older Senators who have retired are Big Tim Sullivan, who has gone to Congress again, and Senators Brackett of Saratoga, Cobb of Jefferson, Hinman of Broome, Allen of Rensselaer, Walworth of Westchester and Hamilton of Chautauqua, Republicans. Hamilton goes to Congress from the Chautauqua-Chattanooga district as the successor to Representative Vreeland.

The older Assemblymen who retired this year were Speaker Edwin A. Merritt, Jr., who is to succeed the late Representative George R. Malby; James S. Parker of Washington, who has been chosen for Congress; George A. Whitney of Saratoga, who has been elected to succeed Senator Brackett; Frank L. Young, the Republican floor leader of the Assembly last year, who was the Republican candidate for Surrogate of Westchester county; Theodore Douglas Robinson of Herkimer and Andrew F. Murray of Manhattan, who were not renominated; William W. Colne of Kings was defeated for reelection. He is now chairman of the Assembly Cities Committee.

Lewis Stuyvesant Chanler, of Dutchess and ex-Speaker Daniel Dodge Frisbie of Schoharie are among the Democrats who were not renominated.

One of the most important acts of the next Legislature will be to provide for a convention to revise the State Constitution.

The State constitution provides that at the general election to be held in 1916 and every twentieth year thereafter, and also at such times as the Legislature may by law provide, the question: "Shall there be a convention to revise the Constitution and amend the same?" shall be decided by a majority of the people who vote on the question. If there is a favorable decision then at the next election at which Assemblymen are elected there shall also be elected to a convention to revise the State constitution three delegates from each of the fifty-one Senate districts and fifteen delegates at large. The constitutional convention would convene at Albany on the first Tuesday of the month of April following the election of the delegates.

The State platforms of the Democratic and Republican parties favor legislation at the next session of the Legislature to provide for the holding of a State constitutional convention at the earliest practical moment to pass especially upon proposed amendments favored by the Progressive party, such as the initiative, referendum and recall, woman suffrage and workmen's compensation.
